Exhibitor feedback

TECHNOTRON

We have already been participating in this exhibition for many years in a row. Weldex allows us show our new products. We see many specialists, many visitors. Already based on the first days it can be said that the exhibition is a success. There are a lot of people. Weldex - great platform for communication and presentations of our new products.

MODI HITECH INDIA

We have been participating in the exhibition for 5 years, and Weldex helps us to develop our business. We see a huge number of visitors every day this year. Weldex is an excellent exhibition for welding industry. We will definitely participate in the exhibition next year.

ALLOY

ALLOY has been participating for a long time at the Weldex exhibition. Our key task is to show ourselves, the model range. The exhibition allows us to meet with a lot of promising partners. We develop our dealer network and representation in different regions of the Russian Federation with the help of the exhibition. For example, now at Weldex 2023 an agreement has been reached and there will be signed a contract stating that we obtain a powerful representative across Siberia, which will promote our welding equipment in this region.
